Call to Worship

Psalm 68:32-35

Leader: O kingdoms of the earth, sing to God; sing praises to the Lord, to Him who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; behold, He sends out His voice, His mighty voice. Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, and whose power is in the skies. Awesome is God from His sanctuary; the God of Israel—He is the one who gives power and strength to His people. Blessed be God!

Prayer of Invocation

The Lord Is King

Call to Confession

Heidelberg Catechism, questions 92, 103

Leader: What is God’s law?

All: God spoke all these words: THE THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT “Remember the sabbath day and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work— you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.”

Leader: What is God’s will for you in the fourth commandment?

All: First, that the gospel ministry and education for it be maintained, and that, especially on the festive day of rest, I diligently attend the assembly of God’s people to learn what God’s Word teaches, to participate in the sacraments, to pray to God publicly, and to bring Christian offerings for the poor. Second, that every day of my life I rest from my evil ways, let the Lord work in me through his Spirit, and so begin in this life the eternal Sabbath.

Confession of Sin

All: Dear Heavenly Father, we lower our heads before You and we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are Yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fall short of being a credible witness to You. For these things we ask Your forgiveness and we also ask for Your strength. Give us clear minds and open hearts so we may witness to You in our world. Remind us to be who You would have us to be regardless of what we are doing or who we are with. Hold us to You and build our relationship with You and with those You have given us on earth. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 53:3-5

Leader: For He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces He was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But He was pierced for our transgressions; He was crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with His wounds we are healed.

GOD SPEAKS TO US

Sermon

Mark 4:35-41

Jesus and Fear

Chris Horne

On that day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.”³⁶ And leaving the crowd, they took Him with them in the boat, just as He was. And other boats were with Him.³⁷ And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling.³⁸ But He was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke Him and said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?”³⁹ And He awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.⁴⁰ He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?”⁴¹ And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

Sola Fide: Jesus in Ezekiel

Steve Eargle and Bill Ressler (Room 203) – ongoing

In this course, we seek to learn more of what God is teaching us in each book of the Old Testament, especially as we clearly see the centrality of Jesus in the persons, events and symbols throughout Redemptive History.

Culture Care

Ruth Vann (Room 205) – July 15 – August 19

Japanese American visual artist and fellow believer, Mako Fujimura, writes, “Culture is not a territory to be won or lost but a resource we are called to steward with care. Culture is a garden to be cultivated.” I’d like to invite you to join me for 6 weeks of teaching and discussion on his book, Culture Care. If you are tired of the culture wars, if you find yourself tempted to be caught up in them, or if you wonder why believers should care about beauty, the arts, and culture, this class is for you. Together, let’s learn and discover how God might be moving us to be generators of culture care in our own beloved city. Summer can be a tricky time to commit to a class but each week will be structured so that you can drop in as able.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Visitors, we are thankful to have you with us this morning. If you would like more information about Trinity, please fill out a visitor card, located on the welcome table.

At Trinity, our mission is to center our lives around Jesus, love one another, and love the world. Our discipleship structure is organized in three levels (large, community, and small) to further these goals, and ultimately, the Kingdom of God. The Large Group level is Sunday morning corporate worship. The Community Group level is primarily our growth group gatherings around the city for sermon discussion and fellowship. The Small Group level is the most intimate (around 5 men or women), seeking spiritual formation through a deeper connection with brothers and sisters in Christ. For more information about growth groups or small groups, contact Joy Voigt.

The Trinity Weekly is an email that comes out every Friday at 1:00 PM. It is the central line of communication for our church. If you would like to subscribe, please contact Ashley Berger.

Our Neighborhood Care Groups need your help! Co-coordinators are needed in Arden/Fletcher to assist Abby Reeder, Haw Creek South to assist Mindy Smith, and Fairview to assist Shaun Fulks. If you desire to serve your neighbors and want information about the responsibilities, please contact Julie Eargle (772.6144 or estonehaven@msn.com).

Paul and Christie Kendall are long-time Trinity members who have given their lives to Christian ministry in various avenues, including youth ministry, coordinating mission trips, acting as house parents at Rift Valley Academy in Kenya – and now as house parents at Ben Lippen School in Columbia, SC. Under the care of Helps International Ministries (based here in Asheville), they nurture and guide a house full of male boarding students of high school age from all over the world. In that providential place, they share the gospel of Christ in word and deed to future leaders, some from countries closed to traditional missionary work. Please pray for energy, wisdom and sensitivity as they serve in this lively ministry; and come hear them share more about their work when they are with us at Trinity next Sunday!

MEN

Our next men's meet-up is Tuesday, July 24 at Creekside Taphouse in Haw Creek.

We will not have a men's breakfast in August.

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost | Ordinary Time

8:30 and 11:00 AM

Welcome! We are glad that you are with us this morning. We hope you feel welcome. Please let us know if we can help you in any way. Our Worship Service lasts for about 75 minutes. We hope you will find the service accessible whether you have spent your whole life in church or are attending for the very first time.

Because we believe there is no limiting condition that is outside the power of the Gospel, we have a Disability Team at Trinity to support and encourage individuals and families affected by disability or special needs. To learn more, contact disabilityteam@trinityasheville.com.

Devices for the hearing impaired are available at the sound booth.

There are a few options for your children. We welcome children of all ages to remain with their parents in worship. We have children's bulletins and Bibles available in the foyer. Room 101 is a dedicated cry room for nursing mothers. Childcare is provided during the entire service for children up to age three. Children ages four and five are given the choice of attending a children's worship time in Room 105; dismissal is before the sermon. We love children here at Trinity. For their safety, please do not leave them unattended in or outside the building.

Additional information is available at our welcome table in the foyer. Please complete a contact card at the table if you would like to register your presence with us.
