Call to Worship

Psalm 62:1-2

Leader: For God alone my soul waits in silence; from Him comes my salvation. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken.

Immortal, Invisible God Only Wise

Confession of Sin

Psalm 62:3-8

Leader: How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence? They only plan to thrust him down from his high position. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse.

All: For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from Him. He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken. On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.

Leader: Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us.

Silent Confession of Sin

Assurance of Pardon

Psalm 62:9-12 | Joel 2:12-13

Leader: Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath. Put no trust in extortion; set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them. Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God, and that to You, O Lord, belongs steadfast love. For You will render to a man according to his work.

“Yet even now,” declares the LORD, “return to Me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments.” Return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and He relents over disaster.

GOD SPEAKS TO US

Sermon

1 Samuel 18:1-5

Friendship through the Eyes of David and Jonathan

A True Friend

Now it came about when he had finished speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as himself. ²Saul took him that day and did not let him return to his father’s house. ³Then Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself. ⁴Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, including his sword and his bow and his belt. ⁵So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and prospered; and Saul set him over the men of war. And it was pleasing in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul’s servants.

Creation Regained

Lori Tyson (Room 205)

Many God-loving people are under the illusion that only certain parts of creation are appropriate for Christians to take part in. Is it dangerous for Christians to listen to music not found in the “Christian” music section? Is being an interior decorator just as God-honoring as being a pastor? Come find out just how extensive, and just how good, all of the areas of God’s creation really are, and how we can join with Him in laying claim to the whole of creation in Christ our King’s name, and thus ultimately becoming more truly the people God meant us to be. Don’t let Satan have the victory over God’s good gifts! We’ll be reading through Al Wolters’ Creation Regained. There is no such thing as a sacred / secular divide. Come learn more.

Sola Fide: Jesus in Lamentations

Steve Eargle and Bill Ressler (Room 203) – ongoing

In this course, we seek to learn more of what God is teaching us in each book of the Old Testament, especially as we clearly see the centrality of Jesus in the persons, events and symbols throughout Redemptive History.

Culture Care

Ruth Vann (Room 205) – beginning July 8

Many of you are familiar with the talented Japanese American visual artist and fellow believer, Mako Fujimura who writes, ‘Culture is not a territory to be won or lost but a resource we are called to steward with care. Culture is a garden to be cultivated.’ I’d like to invite you to join me for 6 weeks of teaching and discussion on his book, Culture Care. If you are tired of the culture wars, if you find yourself tempted to be caught up in them, or if you wonder why believers should care about beauty, the arts, and culture, this class is for you. Together, let’s learn and discover how God might be moving us to be generators of culture care in our own beloved city. Summer can be a tricky time to commit to a class but each week will be structured so that you can drop in as able.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Visitors, we are thankful to have you with us this morning. If you would like more information about Trinity, please fill out a visitor card, located on the welcome table.

At Trinity, our mission is to center our lives around Jesus, love one other, and love the world. Our discipleship structure is organized in three levels (large, community, and small) to further these goals, and ultimately, the Kingdom of God. The Large Group level is Sunday morning corporate worship. The Community Group level is primarily our growth group gatherings around the city for sermon discussion and fellowship. The Small Group level is the most intimate (around 5 men or women), seeking spiritual formation through a deeper connection with brothers and sisters in Christ. For more information about growth groups or small groups, contact Joy Voigt.

The Trinity Weekly is an email that comes out every Friday at 1:00 PM. It is the central line of communication for our church. If you would like to subscribe, please contact Ashley Berger.

MISSION/MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

See our website for the most up to date information on all of our missionaries/ministries.

This week's highlighted missionaries are Flavien & Inyange with their 5 children who serve with Advancing Native Missions. Flavien is an ordained PCA pastor who completed his doctorate while living in Asheville with his family – they attended Trinity during this time. They are originally from France and most recently living in England. Flavien supports the work of indigenous Reformed churches in "sensitive areas," including training their leaders. He and his family are returning to the States for home assignment this summer and will be staying in the Asheville area. They are praying for and seeking counsel regarding direction concerning their ministry and the future location of their home base. They would certainly appreciate any assistance with appliances, homeschooling textbooks, and equipment during their time in the Asheville area. Contact Karen Pick in the office if you can assist them in any way.

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost | Ordinary Time
8:30 and 11:00 AM

Welcome! We are glad that you are with us this morning. We hope you feel welcome. Please let us know if we can help you in any way. Our Worship Service lasts for about 75 minutes. We hope you will find the service accessible whether you have spent your whole life in church or are attending for the very first time.

Because we believe there is no limiting condition that is outside the power of the Gospel, we have a Disability Team at Trinity to support and encourage individuals and families affected by disability or special needs. To learn more, contact disabilityteam@trinityasheville.com.

Devices for the hearing impaired are available at the sound booth.

There are a few options for your children. We welcome children of all ages to remain with their parents in worship. We have children's bulletins and Bibles available in the foyer. Room 101 is a dedicated cry room for nursing mothers. Childcare is provided during the entire service for children up to age three. Children ages four and five are given the choice of attending a children's worship time in Room 105; dismissal is before the sermon. We love children here at Trinity. For their safety, please do not leave them unattended in or outside the building.

Additional information is available at our welcome table in the foyer. Please complete a contact card at the table if you would like to register your presence with us.
